Use and Navigation

Accessing the site on the Internet

- You can use the browser of your choice: MS IE, Firefox, Opera, Chrome, etc. I am unable to test every browser out there, so if you use one that doesn't work, let me know and I'll investigate. I'm also unable to test for a Mac so if you're running a Mac and would like to do some QA for me, let me know.
- In the address bar, enter:
<https://thebignickel.navy> or
<https://ussclaudevricketts.navy>
- Entering either address will take you to the site. The USSClaudeVRicketts.Navy is a redirect to TheBigNickel.Navy.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the DDG-5 website. At the top, there's a navigation menu with links: Home Port, The Cruise Books, The Crew, The Reunions, Ship History, Links, DDG-5 Association, Ship's Store, Save The Charlie Dancer, and Contact About. The main header features a large image of the ship DDG-5 with the title "DDG-5 : The Big Nickel". To the left of the ship is the USS Biddle logo with dates 5/5/62 and 7/28/64. To the right is the USS Claude V. Ricketts logo with dates 7/28/64 and 10/31/89. Below the ship image is a countdown timer for the "2018 DDG-5 REUNION" on "3-6 MAY IN JACKSONVILLE, FLORIDA". The timer shows 0 MTHS, 1 WK, 1 DAYS, 0 HRS, 9 MINS, and 5 SECS. Below the timer is a welcome message: "Welcome to The Big Nickel. This site is dedicated to all those who served on the USS Biddle DDG-5 and, after she was re-commissioned July 28, 1964, the USS Claude V. Ricketts DDG-5. I call the site The Big Nickel simply because a few of us used to call her that when I was on board (July 1964 to March 1968) and the name stuck with me. Besides what else should we call a ship with two names, painted haze gray, and hull number 5?". Below the welcome message are two portraits: Captain Nicolas Biddle (1750 - 1778) and Admiral Claude V. Ricketts (1906 - 1964). At the bottom, there's a registration notice: "If you served on board when she was either the USS Biddle (May 5, 1962 - July 28, 1964) or the USS Claude V. Ricketts (July 28, 1964 - October 31, 1989) please take time to register. After you register you'll be able to sign in to the The Big Nickel Forums where you can reminisce with other shipmates, spin sea stories, and post any pictures you may have of your time on board. A list of all registered shipmates is maintained in the Crew Roster and a special tribute to the crew who participated in the NATO Mixed Manned Demonstration between June, 1964 and December, 1965." The footer contains copyright information: "Copyright The Big Nickel 2008 - 2018" and a disclaimer: "This site is a work in progress. Comments about content, or the lack thereof, are appreciated and encouraged. If you have ideas or thoughts about things you'd like to or would rather not see here, please let me know." There's also a note about the DDG-5 Crew Members Association being a 501(c)3 non-profit organization and that donations are tax deductible. The website is maintained by Kirk "VJ" Neuman.

The Crewmate Finder

- Access The Crewmate Finder by hovering over The Crew on the Navigation Menu bar and selecting Crewmate Finder (Beta)
- Enter a zip code, a search radius in miles and then Submit

Enter your zip code into the following table, enter the distance in miles that you want to search and hit Submit. You will get a listing of crew member names, their city, state and zip code that reside within the range you selected. The distances are approximate to within a few miles. I am working on allowing you to email those crew members that come up, but that won't be available for a while yet.

5 digit zipcode	<input type="text" value="55124"/>
Search radius	<input type="text" value="50"/>

Crewmate Finder Results

- Once displayed and if you are logged in, you can click on a shipmate's name to send email as described earlier
- If you are logged in, the shipmate's name will be colored blue. If you aren't logged in, it will be colored black.
